PROFILE

- 💻 Computer Science Student & Frontend Developer
- 🎓 Debre Brihan University
- 🌟 Passionate about technology and creative design

ABOUT

I am a passionate frontend developer and computer science student, building my foundation through the Udacity program and hands-on projects with my university's tech club. I'm currently expanding my expertise in a 2024/25 program at Zewd Tech, adding video editing, graphic design, and digital marketing to my skillset to create powerful and complete digital experiences.

FOCUS & MISSION

My goal is to merge technical skill with creative vision. I'm currently focused on:

- 👤 Frontend Development: Building responsive, user-friendly websites.
- 🎥 Video Editing: Creating engaging and dynamic visual stories.
- 🎨 Graphic Design: Designing beautiful and effective visuals.
- 📈 Digital Marketing: Understanding how to connect with audiences online.
